CAST OF CHARACTERS

During the course of each campaign in Command & Conquer 3 Tiberium Wars, you'll meet several top-ranking officials from GDI and The Brotherhood of Nod. Below is an overview of each.

GDI

Jack Granger

Played by Michael Ironside

A seasoned veteran who rose through the ranks through military achievement rather than political savvy, General Jack Granger is a tough, no-nonsense commanding officer. His experience in two wars against Nod has netted him valuable insights into any military situation—and the confidence and courage to enact a strategy for victory.

Redmond Boyle

Played by Billy Dee Williams

Lesser men would have crumbled under the weight of such trying times, yet when fate thrust Redmond Boyle into the position of Acting Director of GDI, he stepped up to the challenge. A charismatic but brash leader, Boyle is the public face of GDI and is clearly intent on vanquishing The Brotherhood of Nod at all costs.

Sandra Telfair

Played by Grace Park

Lieutenant Sandra Telfair is special assistant to General Granger at Central Headquarters. With a background in military intelligence, Sandra is a very capable officer in her own right. Her astute assessment of Nod tactics may come in handy.

Kirce James

Played by Jennifer Morrison

A consummate professional and exceptional military officer, Lieutenant Kirce James is exactly the kind of soldier any commander wants on his side. Lieutenant James' access to hard intelligence data—as well as GDI's most powerful weaponry—will frequently be invaluable.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF NOD

Kane

Played by Joe Kucan

The man known only as Kane is the supreme leader—some might say messiah—of The Brotherhood of Nod. Kane epitomizes the fine line between genius and madman, so it's little wonder that the world seems to be polarized either for or against him. His followers believe that he prophesied the existence of Tiberium, yet his actions seem to hint at hidden agendas and megalomaniacal impulses.

Kilian Qatar

Played by Tricia Helfer

General Kilian Qatar is an extremely charismatic and—when the situation demands—incredibly ruthless leader. Nod's second-in-command, Qatar rose through the ranks on both her laurels as superb military tactician and her unwavering loyalty to Kane.

Ajay

Played by Josh Holloway

Ajay is the go-to guy for Nod military planning. A brilliant intelligence officer and a cunning tactician, Ajay has repeatedly proven his ability to create blueprints for complex—and very successful—military operations. An experienced soldier, Ajay is never far from the front lines where his brothers fight to execute his plans.

GAME SCREEN

BATTLE WINDOW

In the Battle Window you can build and place structures, order your units to move and attack, use special powers, and much more. The Battle Window displays only part of the overall map at any time.

NOTE: During Campaign missions, waypoint markers always appear on-screen to guide you toward objectives.

- ▶ To scroll the Battle Window, move the mouse to the edge of the screen in the direction that you want to move. The Battle Window begins to scroll. To stop moving, move the mouse towards the center of the screen. You can also scroll the Battle Window by using the arrow keys.
- ▶ To scroll more quickly, hold down the right mouse button while moving the mouse.

Mouse wheel camera controls: To zoom your view in or out using your mouse wheel, roll the mouse wheel forward or backward. To rotate the camera, hold the wheel down and move the mouse. To return the camera to the default view, double-click the mouse wheel.

THE FOG OF WAR

Each unit has a range of vision, so what you see in the Battle Window is the sum of all that your units can see. Areas of the map beyond this range are covered by a semi-transparent mist, called the Fog of War. This mist hides enemy units and structures and reveals only terrain and civilian buildings. The Fog of War is only removed when your units return to the area.

In some Campaign missions, an additional layer—a black Shroud—covers unexplored terrain. As you explore the map you slowly peel back the shroud to reveal the terrain, structures, and units beneath it. Once the shroud is peeled back, it is gone permanently. However, anything past your units' range of vision is still cloaked in the Fog of War. As in standard Campaign missions, the Fog of War is removed when you are once again within range.

CAMERA BOOKMARKS

Camera bookmarks allow you to mark locations on the map and instantly jump to them with a single press of a key.

- ▶ To set a camera bookmark, press [CONTROL]+[J/K/L].
- ▶ To jump to a defined camera bookmark, press [J/K/L].
- ▶ To jump to your Command Center, press [H].

SIDEBAR

Use the Sidebar to manage your base and your forces. Regardless of where you are and what you see in the Battle Window, you can always build new units and structures in the Sidebar. You need not view your base each time you want to initiate production.

- ▶ The Sidebar includes a Contextual Window that provides information on any selected units, structures, and more. To learn more about anything in the Sidebar, hover your mouse cursor over its icon.
- ▶ During Campaign missions, icons to open your primary and bonus objectives and your Intel Database also appear in the Sidebar.

RADAR MINI-MAP

The Sidebar includes your battlefield radar, also known as the mini-map. Keep an eye on your radar, as it often reveals enemy troop movements before you spot them in the Battle Window. Beware, however: In certain circumstances, your radar may be disabled.

NOTE: Enemy units and structures appear in a different color than your own.

OBJECTIVES (CAMPAIGN ONLY)

To review your mission goals, click the Objectives icon. You must complete all of your primary objectives in order to complete a mission. (Note that your primary objectives may change during the course of battle.) Completing bonus objectives is optional but grants you additional resources or other rewards.

TIP: When all primary objectives are completed, the mission automatically ends in victory. If you plan on completing bonus objectives, be sure to do so with at least one primary objective remaining.

INTEL DATABASE (CAMPAIGN ONLY)

The Intel Database is a valuable reference tool that hosts a wide variety of information about your fighting forces as well as any secret info you happen upon over the course of your Campaign.

- ▶ To access the Intel Database during gameplay, click the Intel Database icon in the upper-right corner of the screen.
- ▶ To access the Intel Database from the Main menu, select PROFILES, then click INTEL DATABASE.

TIP: Listen for important battlefield announcements from your Electronic Video Agent (EVA). Press SPACEBAR to instantly move to EVA's specified locations.

COMMON CONTROL INTERFACE

Located along the bottom of the Battle Window, the Common Control Interface lets you set unit behavior and combat tactics. While there are keyboard shortcuts for all of these options, the Common Control Interface lets you easily access them with a mouse click.

GAMEPLAY BASICS

The following overview is designed to bring the new player up-to-speed on how to play Command & Conquer 3 Tiberium Wars.

BUILDING STRUCTURES

It is not uncommon to start a mission with only a Construction Yard. Begin building the rest of your base immediately.

To build a structure:

1. Select your Construction Yard (or the production structures tab). The structures that it can create are displayed as icons in the Context Window in the Sidebar.

NOTE: If an icon appears grayed out, it is either because you do not have sufficient resources to purchase it or you have not yet built prerequisite structures.

2. Click the icon of the structure you wish to build. A shaded timer appears over the icon. As the time decreases, the credits necessary for building your structure are withdrawn. When the timer is complete, the structure is ready to be placed and you see its icon flashing.

NOTE: If you run out of credits during construction, construction is put on hold until your credits replenish. When your credits are replenished, construction automatically resumes.

3. Move the mouse cursor in the Battle Window to the location where you want to build. (You'll notice your cursor becomes a transparent image of the building.) You must build within your base's ground control, which extends in a circular area from most of your structures. If the structure you wish to build is displayed in red, you cannot build it at that location.

NOTE: To rotate the structure before placing it, click and hold, move the mouse left/right, then release.

4. Once you have decided on a location, click to begin to build the structure.

- ▶ To cancel creation of the structure, right-click it once to stop production (if still in progress), then right-click again to cancel production and refund the purchase cost.

TRAINING UNITS

When you build structures such as Barracks or War Factories, you can use them to train fighting units.

To train units:

1. Click your infantry production structure—or click the Infantry subtab on the Command Bar—to open the Units menu. The units available for you to train appear.
2. Click the icon of the unit you wish to train. A shaded timer indicates how long it takes to build the unit.

NOTE: To start a production queue, click the icon of the units you wish to build repeatedly. A number appears on the icon telling you how many units you have ordered. To queue up five units at a time, press and hold SHIFT while clicking.

3. When the unit is ready, it exits the structure and reports for duty.

- ▶ To cancel unit training, right-click the Unit icon once to stop training, then right-click again to cancel training and refund the associated costs.

POWERING YOUR BASE

Your base requires power to function properly. As you add more structures to your base, you'll need additional power. If your base runs low on power, you suffer a number of consequences: your radar goes offline, your base defenses cease functioning, and the speed at which you can build new structures and train new units is reduced. As soon as you regain sufficient power, all of these effects go away. Your Construction Yard generates a small amount of power, but you must construct Power Plants to generate more. When a Power Plant is constructed, the Power Meter increases.

- To determine how much power you have at your disposal and how much you are presently using, check the Power Meter.
- Next to the Power Meter is a small indicator of how much power your base requires. Try to keep the power meter above this indicator.

NOTE: If you are running low on power you may choose to power down one or more of your structures in a conservation effort. To do so, click the Power icon on the Command Bar and then click the building. Be warned, however, that powered-down buildings are completely inactive. This means, for example, that you'll no longer be able to train units from a powered-down War Factory. Buildings that are affected by EMP weapons are considered to be powered down. To restore power, click the building again while still in this mode.

RESOURCES

Building units and structures, researching upgrades, and using support powers all cost you credits. When you select an item or action that requires credits, the funds begin being deducted from your account until the full amount has been paid. (Support powers deduct credits in one lump sum.)

- You begin a typical match with enough credits to spend on building basic units and structures. However, to finish the fight, you must acquire more credits.
- If you choose to perform a task that requires credits, but run out of credits, that task is put on hold until you earn more.
- To acquire more credits, locate Tiberium, then build a Refinery in its vicinity. A Refinery comes with a Harvester that automatically seeks out and recovers Tiberium, which is converted into credits. When you build a Refinery close to Tiberium, your Harvesters naturally take less time to gather resources.

Blue Tiberium

Green Tiberium

TIP: Be on the lookout for the rare, blue-colored Tiberium, which is much more valuable than the standard green Tiberium.

UPGRADING TECHNOLOGY

Structures such as the Tech Center can research new technologies to enhance your units. Once researched, upgrades instantly affect all units of the applicable type—including units already in the field.

- To develop an upgrade from a structure, click the structure, then click the upgrade icon in the Context Window. The upgrade takes time and credits, much like structures and units do.

CONTROLLING YOUR FORCES

A good commander knows when to order his troops to hold ground, make a strategic retreat, or charge boldly into battle. Learn what it takes to command your forces to victory.

BASIC MOVEMENT CONTROLS

Movement

To move a unit, click it to select it in the Battle Window, then right-click a destination. Most units automatically fire on enemy units in range while moving to a designated point.

Attack

To attack an enemy, select your units then right-click the target.

Rally Points

To set a rally point for all units produced at a structure, either click the structure then right-click on the map, or click the production tab, press CONTROL + R, and right-click on the map.

NOTE: Once you have set a rally point, your newly-trained units exit the unit production structure and proceed directly to that point.

STANCES

Set your units' stance to determine their rules of engagement. There are several options to choose from.

- To change the stance of a group of units, select the group, then either click the appropriate stance button in Common Control Interface or press one of the designated shortcut keys.

Aggressive

Your units approach, attack, and pursue enemy units or structures in their line of sight. (Shortcut key: ALT + A.)

Guard (default)

Your units approach and attack enemies that enter their line of sight. When the enemies are destroyed or retreat, your units return to their positions. (Shortcut key: ALT + S.)

Hold Ground

Your units remain stationary, but fire on any enemies that come within range.

NOTE: This stance is useful for defensive strategies or artillery units. (Shortcut key: ALT + D.)

Hold Fire

Units in this stance do not return fire or pursue enemy forces.

NOTE: This stance is useful for stealthed units. (Shortcut key: ALT + F.)

TIP: Try selecting your unit product structure and changing the stance of that building. Units trained from this building default to the selected stance.

UNIT VETERANCY

As your units attack enemy units and buildings, they gain experience. When a unit accumulates enough experience, it gets promoted to a new veterancy level. A special icon in the Battle Window denotes veteran units. Veteran units have improved performance capabilities.

- Veteran units inflict more damage and are more resistant to damage (compared with non-veteran units).
- Elite units inflict more damage and are more resistant to damage (compared with veteran units).
- Heroic inflict more damage and are more resistant to damage (compared with elite units). Also, they attack more quickly, automatically heal themselves, and have distinct weapon effects.

PLANNING MODE

Planning mode allows you to queue up multiple unit orders to your units, which are executed on your mark. This is useful for diversionary tactics and flanking maneuvers. Planning mode may also be used to put units on patrol.

To issue orders in planning mode:

1. Press [CONTROL] + [Z] to toggle planning mode on, then right-click to issue orders as you normally would. Faint lines in the battle window denote planning mode orders. If you were to issue a movement order, for example, a red line would indicate the route which your troops take.
2. To instruct your troops to proceed with carrying out your orders, press [CONTROL] + [Z] again to toggle planning mode off.

To create a patrol in planning mode:

1. Press [CONTROL] + [Z] to toggle planning mode on.
  2. Right-click to assign one or more waypoints to a unit, making sure the last waypoint connects with the starting point. (You see the waypoint markers change hue when you have done this correctly.)
  3. Press [CONTROL] + [Z] again to toggle planning mode off. Your units begin patrolling.
- To decommission a patrol, simply issue your patrolling units a new order.

FORMATION PREVIEW

Once you've amassed a considerable army, you may wish to place some of your units into an organized formation. The formation preview feature takes the guesswork out of organizing your troops by automatically arranging them.

To use formation preview:

1. Select a group of units.
  2. Move your mouse cursor to the place on the terrain where you want your units to form up.
  3. Click and hold both mouse buttons simultaneously. A preview of your formation appears.
  4. Move the mouse horizontally to rotate your formation such that it faces your preferred direction, then move the mouse vertically to change up the battle line and control the depth and width of the resulting formation.
  5. Release the mouse buttons. Your troops now automatically move to the selected destination and line up in the previewed formation.
- Try using formations in combination with the Hold Ground stance to form a defensive line.

TIP: You can combine a movement order with the formation preview. For more information, see Formation Move on p. 15.

GARRISONING INFANTRY

Many civilian structures and some other structures can be garrisoned with infantry units. Garrisoning infantry protects them and grants them a bonus to their attack range. Enemies attacking garrisoned forces need to severely damage the garrisoned building first, at which time any garrisoned forces will automatically exit.

- To garrison a structure, click the desired infantry units, then right-click the structure you wish to garrison. The units move to the selected structure, occupy it, and your faction's flags appear.
- To remove units from a garrisoned structure, click the structure. An icon of the units inside of it appears. Click the units you wish to remove. They exit the structure and are ready for new orders.

NOTE: Some units, such as the GDI Grenadier, have attack abilities that instantly eliminate enemy units inside of garrisoned structures.

CRATES

These gray GDI-771g lock-crates should be considered targets of opportunity. Crack one open and you may find something useful, from extra credits to healing boosts to automatic veterancy upgrades.

- To acquire a crate, order units to move to its position.

BARRELS

Not to be confused with crates, the barrels you sometimes encounter carelessly strewn about the battlefield contain highly volatile chemicals that explode when fired upon. Try shooting one when your foes are nearby.

INTERMEDIATE TACTICS

There's still more to learn once you've mastered the basics of Command & Conquer 3 Tiberium Wars. Take heed of the following tactics for superior results in battle.

GROUPING UNITS

Although it is possible to play Command & Conquer 3 Tiberium Wars using only the mouse, you can play more efficiently with one hand on the keyboard.

- One of the most useful key combinations in the game involves setting up unit groups. Simply select the units you want and then press and hold [CONTROL] and any number key. The units you selected are now assigned to that number key. To select them, simply press the number key you chose.
- To center your view on that group, double-tap the number key.
- To add units from that group, hold [SHIFT] and click the additional units.

TIP: Unit groups are a great way to send coordinated forces into battle. For starters, try putting all your aircraft in one group, all your vehicles in another, and so on. Experiment with unit groups to discover combinations that work best for you.

KEYBOARD SHORTCUTS (HOTKEYS)

If you want to master Command & Conquer 3 Tiberium Wars, it's essential to learn all the different hotkeys in the game. The preset hotkeys are designed to support competitive play; however, you can customize them to best suit your personal style.

- To customize your hotkeys, select OPTIONS in the Main menu, click SETTINGS, then select the Hotkeys tab.

BASE BUILDING 101

In Command & Conquer 3 Tiberium Wars, you'll be spending most of your time in battle. While combat tactics are important, some battles can be won before they begin by players who strategically set up their base. The decisions you make very early in a match often affect the outcome, so it's important to learn how to build a base quickly and effectively.

QUICK TIPS

- Consider building a Crane right from the start. The principle benefit of a Crane is that it lets you construct twice as many buildings in the same amount of time as your Construction Yard alone.
- It's usually best to build at least one extra Harvester for every Refinery that you build. Harvesters fuel your economy and therefore should be protected at all costs.
- Consider an early expansion to additional resources. The fastest way to expand is to build a Surveyor (GDI), Emmissary (Nod), or Explorer (Scrin). These vehicles deploy into Outposts that provide ground control for base expansion.
- Set up base defenses wherever you may be vulnerable. It may be tempting to place your unprotected Power Plants near the back of your base, but a shrewd opponent will exploit this.

DISABLED BUILDINGS

It is essential to keep in mind that disabled buildings—such as buildings that have been powered down—do not count as requisites for advanced units and structures until they are re-enabled.

- A building that has been hit with an EMP attack is considered a disabled building. Therefore, it is vital to keep your base protected from EMP attacks in particular whenever possible.

TIP: While engaged in battle, don't forget about your base. Keep building until you have access to all the units, upgrades, and support powers you need to win.

FOCUSING FIRE

In general, it is better to eliminate opposing forces one at a time rather than spreading your attacks thin. Even a nearly-defeated enemy can still cause considerable damage, so it makes sense to destroy foes in succession to thin out their ranks and overwhelm their force. Try to prioritize those targets that are most dangerous or most vulnerable first.

BUILDINGS UNDER ATTACK? SELL THEM

If your structures come under attack and the situation looks hopeless, considering selling the structures before they're destroyed. Bear in mind, however, that the amount of credits you get on resale is reduced the more the building is damaged.

BEWARE OF ENGINEERS

Although GDI Engineers, Nod Saboteurs, and Scrin Assimilators are relatively weak units, they all share an important role: taking over enemy structures and tech buildings. Thus, the shrewd commander never underestimates the Engineer.

- Getting your Engineer behind enemy lines is easier than you think. GDI and Nod can use their infantry's Call for Transport ability to fly them behind enemy lines. The Scrin Assimilator is stealthed—and thus invisible—when not moving.
- Engineers can also capture walker units, such as the Juggernaut and Avatar Warmech, after the walkers have fallen to the ground in defeat.

TIP: To add insult to your enemy's injury, sell off an enemy structure immediately after capture, or have it start rapidly creating units for your own army.

ADVANCED MOVE ORDERS

The units in Command & Conquer 3 Tiberium Wars are intelligent enough to know how best to respond to most situations when left to their own devices, or when given a standard right-click order. For example, they automatically attack enemy units that come into range. However, as your gameplay skills improve, you may wish to incorporate the following advanced move orders into your repertoire in order to gain a tactical advantage over your foes.

ATTACK MOVE

Hotkey: A

When ordered to attack-move, selected units stop to attack any opposing units or base defenses along their route. This is an effective way to meet an opposing force or storm an enemy base.

ASSAULT MOVE

Hotkey: F

This variation on attack-move causes your selected units to also attack any enemy buildings along their route. Units normally do not automatically attack enemy buildings, so this command can be useful for laying waste to enemy bases.

REVERSE MOVE

Hotkey: D

Normally your units move head-first in the direction they're ordered. The reverse-move command causes them to back up, which can be faster than ordering them to turn around in some cases. This is an excellent option for strategic retreats or baiting tactics.

TIP: Don't forget, most vehicles have front armor that is stronger than their rear armor. Reverse-moves are your best bet for a strategic—and safe—retreat.

FORCE MOVE

Hotkey: G

The force-move command forces your selected units to move to a designated point—even if the route happens to be through enemy units. Use this command to order your tanks to overrun infantry rather than shoot them. Some of the largest ground units can even overrun other vehicles.

FORMATION MOVE

Hotkey: N/A

The formation move allows you to combine the expedience of a movement order with the simplicity of formation preview.

- To issue a formation move, press and hold both mouse buttons at the desired destination for your selected units, and then move the mouse around. You see a variety of different formations you can choose. To select one, release the mouse buttons. Selected units then move toward the specified point (at the rate of the slowest unit in the group) and arrange themselves in the designated formation. This is useful for keeping fast units from outpacing slower ones as they head into battle.

SCATTER

Hotkey: CONTROL + X

If your units are in danger of being overrun or bombarded, you can make them spread out using this command.

PLACE RALLY POINT

Hotkey: CONTROL + R

This handy shortcut lets you set a rally point for the currently-selected production queue, without having to select the building back at base. This is a great way to send reinforcements straight to the front lines in mid-battle.

WAYPOINT MODE

Hotkey: ALT

Press and hold the Waypoint Mode hotkey to queue up multiple orders by right-clicking. It's a great way to prioritize focused attacks against enemies and enemy structures, or for setting circuitous routes through enemy terrain.

ARMOR FACING

Tanks and other armored vehicles sustain more damage when attacked from the side and sustain considerably more damage when attacked from the rear. Use this knowledge to your advantage and protect your forces well.

TIP: Try using the reverse-move command to get your armor out of a pinch.

INFANTRY SUPPRESSION

When fired upon, infantry may become suppressed. When this happens, you'll see your troops go prone. Suppressed infantry move slower than usual but are better defended due to their low profile.

TIP: In general, the more powerful the weapon, the better it is at suppressing infantry. Remember this well when considering how best to use and counter infantry units.

INFANTRY COVER

Infantry automatically kneel behind cover when ordered to move next to civilian structures and other large obstacles in the environment. Covered units are better defended and nearly impossible to suppress.

TIP: Use your knowledge of infantry cover tactics to gain the upper hand against comparable forces in urban operations.

SUPERWEAPONS

Each of the three factions in Command & Conquer 3 Tiberium Wars has at least one superweapon—something so destructive it can nearly wipe any opposition from the map. These superweapons are ideal for use in the event of a standoff, when your enemy is deeply entrenched. Be warned, however, that the moment you construct a superweapon building, a countdown timer appears that both you and your opponents can see. Don't be surprised if the enemy redoubles its efforts to annihilate you before the clock runs out.

NOTE: The countdown temporarily stops if your base runs low on power.

TIP: Although superweapons are extremely powerful, they may not end the match. Have some forces on reserve to mop up the remaining forces as needed.

GAME MODES

CAMPAIGN

March, 2047. A massive nuclear fireball explodes high in the night sky, marking the end of GDI's orbital military command center and the beginning of the Third Tiberium War.

Tiberium. To the GDI, it is an alien substance that has polluted the Earth to the point that it is nearly uninhabitable—and is spreading at dangerous rates. To the Brotherhood of Nod, Tiberium is humanity's destiny, a substance of great power prophesized by their enigmatic leader, Kane. The GDI want nothing more than to eradicate Tiberium off the face of the planet; Nod want nothing less than total control of what they believe is Earth's most precious resource. War rages over Tiberium and the fate of the entire planet hangs in the balance.

This is where you come in, Commander. Choose your allegiance and head into battle. The outcome of the Tiberium Wars is in your hands.

- To begin a Campaign as either, select CAMPAIGN in the Main menu, then select either GDI or NOD. (GDI is recommended for new players.)
- After completing each Campaign mission, you are awarded a medal. The medal you receive depends on the difficulty level you chose. Superior medals are earned by completing missions at higher difficulty settings. Complete all bonus objectives in a mission to earn a first ribbon. Discover all Intel Database entries in a mission to earn a second ribbon.
- In between Campaign missions, you return to the Theater of War screen, which allows you to choose your next mission, move to another Theater of War (if available), and replay previously-accomplished missions. The Theater of War screen also shows which medals you have earned in each mission.

SKIRMISH

Skirmishes are single-player battles that pit you against one or more computer-controlled opponents.

- To begin a skirmish, select SKIRMISH in the Main menu, then click NEW SKIRMISH. The Skirmish Setup screen appears.

SKIRMISH SCREEN

- You can choose your starting location on the map prior to beginning the Skirmish. To do so, click one of the start points on the displayed map.
- Skirmishes can be played with up to eight players. Any players that are not controlled either by you or the computer are marked CLOSED. Not all maps support the maximum of eight players, and you cannot exceed the maximum number of players defined by the map.
- To customize the rules of your skirmish, click RULES in the Skirmish screen. You can adjust the game speed and initial resources, or enable and disable random crates in gameplay (for more information, see Crates on p. 13).
- Handicap allows you to balance gameplay between two unevenly matched players, making one side or the other inherently stronger. A negative handicap decreases attacks and the severity of damage as well as other factors.
- When you are ready to begin gameplay, click PLAY.

NOTES To load a previously saved skirmish, select SKIRMISH, click LOAD, then select the game save you wish to continue.

THE CUSTOMIZABLE AI

You can adjust the behavior of the computer artificial intelligence in both skirmish and multiplayer games with four different difficulty settings and five different personalities. This allows you to configure the game to your unique tastes and desire for challenge.

AI SKILL LEVELS

There are four different skill levels you can choose from for each computer-controlled player.

Easy	Recommended for novice RTS players or those yearning to experiment. Don't expect much of a fight.
Medium	Recommended for most players. You'll be in for a fair fight.
Hard	Recommended for experienced players looking for a challenge. The AI plays to the best of its ability without cheating.
Brutal	Recommend for hardcore players who want to win by the skin of their teeth—or not at all. The Brutal AI gets double income as its only cheat.

AI PERSONALITIES

There are five different AI personalities that determine what kind of gameplay tactics your opponent uses.

Balanced	This personality type favors mixed forces and an even-handed style that doesn't emphasize defense over offense.
Rusher	Prepare to defend yourself quickly against this personality type, which will immediately set out on the attack.
Turtle	You'll need to fight relentlessly to crack the shell of this defense-oriented personality type, which also focuses on resource gathering.
Guerrilla	Expect the unexpected from this personality type, which harasses you with fast, diversionary tactics.
Steamroller	This personality type favors decisive force. It aims to build an overwhelming army with which to attack you head-on.

MULTIPLAYER GAME MODE TYPES

There are five different multiplayer game mode types available in Command & Conquer 3 Tiberium Wars.

Unranked

Unranked matches offer the most flexibility, from map variety to starting resource levels to the number of AI-controlled players. These matches do not affect your ladder ranking.

Ranked (1 vs. 1)

Ranked matches force certain game settings on you, restrict your map selection to official maps intended specifically for balanced, competitive play, and affect your ladder position.

Ranked (2 vs. 2)

Just like Ranked (1 vs. 1), but with four players instead of two. You cannot play ranked matches with or against the computer. However, you can choose your ally and challenge specific opponents if you play through Custom Match.

Clan (1 vs. 1)

Similar to Ranked (1 vs. 1), except the results are counted toward a specific clan ladder. You cannot join or create a clan match unless you are affiliated with a clan. (For more information on clans, see p. 23.)

Clan (2 vs. 2)

Similar to Ranked (2 vs. 2), except the results are counted toward a specific clan ladder. Each two-player team must consist of players belonging to the same clan.

LEVELS

When playing online, you are awarded Level points for every win or loss. Level is represented within your Reputation Insignia and is not directly tied to your online Rank. Players gain Level points for playing an online match, regardless of the result. Wins award more points than losses and ranked matches award more points than unranked matches.

NOTE: If you wish your online play not to affect your place on the ladder, choose unranked matches.

Sportsmanship—Triangle color changes to display opponents' votes regarding your play following each match.

Level—Total points gained from online matches.

Skill—Triangle color changes to display opponents' votes regarding your play following each match.

Favorite Faction—Background color shows the faction you've played the most online matches with.

RANK

The results of ranked online matches are calculated via Elo rules, a conventional player ranking system. After each battle, your rank goes up or down based on the result of the battle and the Elo value of your opponent. The higher the rank of the player you defeat, the more you rise on the Rank Ladder.

CHAT

You have the option of chatting with buddies on your Friends List or everyone in the Online Lobby.

- To chat in the Online Lobby (your comments are viewed by everyone), type your message in to the box below the chat window and click SEND.
- To instant message players on your friends list, click the Envelope icon to open the Instant Messaging client. Your Friends List appears on the left.
- Each player has two icons next to his or her name. Click the thumbs down icon to put the player on your Ignore list, or click the plus symbol to add this player to your Friends List.

BEACONS

In multiplayer matches, you can use beacons to identify rally points, weaknesses in the enemy's position, or resources for your allies to gather. When you place a beacon on the map, only your allies and observers of the game can see it.

- To place a beacon, press B, then click the location where you wish to place it.

TIP: Try placing beacons when teamed up with AI-controlled players. They can send available forces to your aid.

VOICE OVER IP (VOIP)

Voice Over IP technology lets players communicate by voice in multiplayer matches via a PC-compatible microphone or headset peripheral.

- To enable VOIP, select OPTIONS in the Main menu, click SETTINGS, then select the Audio tab. Click either PUSH TO TALK (you must press a button to enable voice chat during game-play) or VOICE ACTIVATED (VOIP is enabled when your voice is detected). There is a Voice Calibration test to adjust the threshold, and you can also adjust the Receive Volume and Transmit Volume.
- You can also enable VOIP for specific games via a checkbox in the Game Setup lobby for both Online and Network games.
- In game, you can set your preferences (chatting to allies only or chatting to everyone) by clicking the Voice Chat Mode button located to the left of the mini-map.
- If you selected PUSH TO TALK in the Settings menu, a button appears directly under the Voice Chat Mode button during gameplay titled Voice Chatting. Click this button to talk.

NOTE: Please be sure that your microphone and its volume settings are configured properly before using the VOIP feature.

NOTE: Commentators use VOIP to communicate to Observers of a Match. However, Observers can't use VOIP. For more information, see Commentary on p. 23.

UNITS, STRUCTURES, AND POWERS

Thorough knowledge of the arsenal at your disposal is the mark of a good commander.

SUPPORT POWERS

Support Powers are special moves specific to the faction you are fighting for. They appear as icons on the left side of the Battle Window. Using a Support Power costs resources.

- Each time you use a Support Power there is a cool-down period before you can use it again.
- Support Powers are automatically unlocked when you build the requisite structure.

UPGRADES

Many units can be upgraded with various technologies, including advanced weapons and new abilities.

- To upgrade a unit, you must first research the upgrade at a specific faction structure. Select the proper structure and click the icon representing that upgrade. The cost is deducted from your credits and the upgrade is researched.

NOTE: Once you have researched an upgrade, it is instantly applied to all relevant units on the battlefield and any additional units of that type that you train—even if the structure where the upgrade was researched is destroyed.

ABILITIES

Abilities are unit-specific special moves initiated by the player. Unlike most Support Powers, most Abilities do not cost resources per use (although some do). However, like Support Powers, they often require a cool-down period before they can be used again. Some abilities must be researched before they can be used.

GDI forces have one mission: to save the world from the spread of Tiberium. Their aim is to abolish The Brotherhood of Nod terrorist organization and reverse the effects of Tiberium on the ecosystem so that the world can return to a sustainable level of habitability.

Organized, and heavily armed, GDI forces are direct and dependable. The GDI does sometimes need to cut through bureaucratic red tape to get things done, but once it gets up to speed, it is virtually unstoppable.

In general, GDI forces prefer to stick with the tried-and-true over new-but-questionable technologies. However, GDI is a resourceful organization built to withstand punishment and respond well to unexpected emergencies.

GDI UNITS

INFANTRY

All GDI infantry units are trained at the Barracks.

ICON/NAME	DESCRIPTION
 Rifleman Squad	Rifleman Squads are the mainstay of GDI ground forces, capable of digging foxholes to protect themselves—and other infantry—when defending a position. Abilities: Dig In, Call for Transport Upgrades: Composite Armor
 Missile Squad	Missile Squads, the natural counterpart to Riflemen, provide essential support fire against ground and air targets. Their heavy anti-vehicle weapons make them slower than Riflemen, and thus vulnerable to enemy attacks. Abilities: Call for Transport Upgrades: Composite Armor
 Engineer	Engineers can capture enemy facilities, repair GDI structures and damaged bridges, and commandeer fallen walkers like the Juggernaut. Due to their slow movement rate and vulnerability, however, it's a good idea to offer them protection whenever possible. Abilities: Call for Transport
 Grenadier Squad	Grenadier Squads serve as GDI's close-assault infantry. They are extremely difficult to suppress, and can quickly clear enemy squads out of garrisoned structures with their high-powered, rocket-assisted grenades. Requirements: Command Post Abilities: Call for Transport Upgrades: Composite Armor
 Sniper Team	Sniper Teams can kill most infantry from long range with a single well-placed shot and are trained in reconnaissance tactics such as stealth and artillery target spotting. Requirements: Armory Abilities: Call for Transport
 Commando	Thanks to their burst-firing prototype rail carbines, Commandos are unmatched when fighting enemy infantry. Their explosives can demolish structures and even large walkers like the Avatar. Requirements: Armory, Tech Center Abilities: Jump Jets, Call for Transport
 Zone Trooper	Capable of surviving in otherwise uninhabitable environments, Zone Troopers are highly mobile, well protected, and trained to destroy enemy infantry and vehicles with their heavy-duty railguns. Requirements: Tech Center Abilities: Jump Jets, Call for Transport Upgrades: Scanner Packs, Power Packs

VEHICLES

Most GDI vehicles are built at the War Factory.

-----------	-------------

Pitbull

Although the Pitbull—GDI's primary scout vehicle—can fire missiles capable of damaging ground and air vehicles, it is too lightly armored to survive direct combat. Pitbulls can also detect stealth units.

Upgrades: Mortars

Predator Tank

The Predator is equipped with an armor-piercing cannon and can withstand heavy fire thanks to its thick plating. However, it is ineffective against infantry and vulnerable to hostile aircraft unless supported with anti-air defenses.

Upgrades: Railguns

APC

GDI infantry rely on APCs to move safely through hostile terrain. APCs can fire at aircraft, infantry, and light vehicles, and are designed to let infantry attack from within.

Abilities: Lay Minefield

Harvester

GDI Harvesters are easily recognizable by the light machinegun mounted above the cab, used to ward off marauders that might wish to steal their precious cargo.

Requirements: Refinery

MCV

The Mobile Construction Vehicle (MCV) was invented to provide GDI with a mobile base at a moment's notice. MCVs can be seen packing and unpacking into Construction Yards.

Rig

The Rig is a heavy support vehicle capable of deploying into a versatile Battle Base, which provides considerable defense with two integrated Guardian Cannons, a missile launcher, stealth-detection scanners, and automated repair drones.

Requirements: Command Post

Mammoth Tank

Armed with dual cannons and rocket pods, the Mammoth Tank is the ultimate in armored warfare. Although slow, the Mammoth is so powerful it can crush lesser tanks beneath its treads.

Requirements: Tech Center

Upgrades: Railguns

Juggernaut

GDI's walking artillery platform can support tank operations with its long-range cannons, serve as a siege weapon when stationed outside an enemy base, and bombard targets with the aid of Sniper Teams.

Requirements: Tech Center

Abilities: Bombard Target

Surveyor

The Surveyor can locate viable base sites and deploy in order to facilitate construction. It is most useful when placed near Tiberium fields.

AIRCRAFT

Most GDI aircraft are built at the Airfield.

Orca

The Orca is effective in a variety of roles including scouting, fire support for ground operations, and direct strikes on enemy installations. It can be outfitted to increase its scouting capabilities.

Abilities: Deploy Sensor Pod, Pulse Scan

Upgrades: Sensor Pods

Firehawk

Firehawks can carry heavy Hellcat Firebombs or Rattlesnake Missiles for smashing enemy aircraft. When outfitted with Stratofighter Boosters, Firehawks can fly outside the range of enemy air defenses then plunge for the attack.

Abilities: Missile Loadout, Bomb Loadout

Requirements: Tech Center

Upgrades: Stratofighter Booster

V-35 Ox Transport

The V-35 Ox—a flying transport capable of shipping all but the heaviest military forces—lets GDI mount surprise attacks. Ox Transports are not durable enough to send into enemy territory, however.

GDI STRUCTURES

GDI PRODUCTION STRUCTURES

-----------	-------------

Construction Yard

The heavily-armored Construction Yard doubles as GDI's forward base. It can pack into an MCV, affording it mobility, but needs to be protected at all costs. The Construction Yard provides radar capability to GDI bases.

Power Plant

GDI's Power Plant provides clean, efficient energy for their forward combat bases.

Upgrades: Advanced Turbines

Crane

Larger GDI bases employ Cranes to help sustain rapid construction schedules. A single Crane can double the rate at which a GDI forward base is built.

Refinery

The GDI Refinery is highly effective at processing Tiberium into useful resources. The Refinery comes with a Harvester included, and is essential to funding GDI's military efforts.

ICON/NAME DESCRIPTION*Barracks

The GDI Barracks is a self-contained recruitment and training center. GDI infantry divisions can be outfitted for combat quickly and efficiently here.
Requirements: Power Plant

Armory

The Armory grants GDI access to its most highly trained soldiers. It includes upgrades for Zone Trooper Power Armor as well as a medical bay that can heal wounded infantry.
Requirements: Barracks

War Factory

The GDI War Factory builds standard GDI vehicles and is outfitted with automated repair drones that automatically repair damaged vehicles that approach it.
Requirements: Power Plant, Refinery

Command Post

The Command Post is an essential component of an advanced GDI base. It can scan remote locations and is required to build key structures.
Requirements: Power Plant, Refinery

Tech Center

Tech Centers provide cutting-edge military technology to GDI forces. Vehicles, tanks, and aircraft can all be upgraded. Additionally, a Tech Center also grants access to some of GDI's strongest forces.
Requirements: Command Post

Airfield

GDI Airfields support ground operations in combat zones. Each Airfield contains up to four aircraft. Airfields can call Orca Strikes, deploy infantry and vehicles via air transports, and summon elite Bloodhound recon groups.
Requirements: Command Post

Space Command Uplink

This self-contained launch platform allows GDI to deploy high-tech support weapons and send Zone Troopers to the battlefield from orbit. An EMP weapon called Shockwave Artillery can also be utilized.
Requirements: Tech Center

GDI SUPPORT STRUCTURES*ICON/NAME DESCRIPTION*Watchtower

These tall structures with a good line of sight and rapid firing, automated anti-infantry machineguns ensure the security of the base against hostile threats.
Requirements: Power Plant

Guardian Cannon

Guardian Cannons—equipped with an automated gun that can punch through tank armor but is less effective against infantry—are a frequent sight in areas vulnerable to armored attacks.
Requirements: Barracks

AA Battery

The AA Battery contains cannons capable of eliminating aircraft with deadly efficiency. The targeting systems and turret actuators cannot track ground targets, so they are useless against infantry or tanks.
Requirements: Command Post

Tiberium Silo

The Tiberium Silo, made of special materials that allow for long-term storage, is the perfect storage facility for excess Tiberium.
Requirements: Refinery

Sonic Emitter

Sonic Emitters were originally developed for breaking down Tiberium, but gained a reputation as extremely powerful base defenses.
Requirements: Tech Center

Ion Cannon Control

By building this structure you gain access to the latest version of GDI's most feared weapon, the Ion Cannon, which can vaporize virtually everything within its significant blast radius.
Requirements: Tech Center

THE BROTHERHOOD OF NOD

Followers of The Brotherhood of Nod do not consider themselves part of any army so much as part of a religion. They believe their leader Kane to be on the forefront of a movement to elevate the human race. Their loyalty to Kane is thought to be absolute and their convictions, unshakable. They are willing to sacrifice everything to bring victory to the Brotherhood.

Nod's forces are an unusual combination of poorly-equipped third-world militias with highly-trained mercenaries armed with exotic weaponry. Nod's ethos is a guerilla warfare approach on the battlefield. They like to move quickly to attack and then escape without a trace. Their mixture of high-end and low-tech military gear can be exceptionally lethal, but also unpredictable.

NOD UNITS

NOD INFANTRY

All Nod infantry units are trained at the Hand of Nod.

In spite of its light armor, the Stealth Tank is formidable. It is invisible to most opposing forces, except when it stops to fire a barrage of its deadly and accurate rockets.

Requirements: Operations Center

Beam Cannon

Though not intended for direct attacks against enemy armor, groups of Beam Cannons can deal terrific damage to structures given sufficient time. Their energies can enhance Obelisks of Light as well.

Abilities: Reflector Beam, Charge Defenses

NOD STRUCTURES

NOD PRODUCTION STRUCTURES

ICON/NAME	DESCRIPTION
 Construction Yard	Heavily armored but mission-critical, Construction Yards are crucial to Nod's war efforts and tend to be well-defended for that reason. They also provide radar capability to Nod bases.
 Power Plant	The Nod Power Plant is able to generate extraordinary amounts of power from a small amount of Tiberium at the expense of ecological damage to the surrounding environment.
 Crane	Cranes reinforce the production capability of the Nod Construction Yard. One Crane fully doubles the rate at which Nod structures may be built.
 Refinery	The Nod Refinery can rapidly transform raw Tiberium into useful materials. Each Refinery comes with one of Nod's nearly invisible Harvester vehicles.
 Hand of Nod	The Hand of Nod provides shelter, supplies, and training to the legions of Nod militants, fanatics, and elite infantry as they wage war against GDI. Requirements: Power Plant
 War Factory	This essential facility is used to construct and deploy Nod's highly specialized vehicles. Nod War Factories also have automated drones that quickly repair damaged vehicles nearby. Requirements: Power Plant, Refinery
 Operations Center	The Operations Center contains advanced communications arrays required for Nod's costliest structures, and can also deploy advanced counter-intelligence technology such as the Radar Jamming Missile and the Cloaking Field. Requirements: Power Plant, Refinery

SCRIN

Proof that humankind was not alone in the universe came suddenly when the Scrin appeared on Earth and commenced their attack. They seem to thrive in Tiberium and, unlike us, appear to actually be healed, not harmed, by the substance.

The Scrin's numbers are unknown and their technology seems to be far superior to ours. Most interestingly, their technology seems to have afforded them a level of resiliency to our foreign environment. We haven't much intel on their motives, but, unless proven otherwise, we will treat them as a serious threat.

SCRIN UNITS

SCRIN INFANTRY

All Scrin infantry units are transported via the Portal.

ICON/NAME	DESCRIPTION
 Buzzers	The terrifying Buzzers are like a cloud of flying razors that can cut cleanly through flesh and light armor. They seem to be guided by a limited sentience. Buzzers can clear garrisoned structures. Abilities: Combine with Vehicle
 Disintegrators	These metallic walking creatures decimate vehicles with a powerful cutting beam. When crushed, they explode, damaging enemies in the vicinity.

PERFORMANCE TIPS

SYSTEM REQUIREMENTS

It is essential that your PC meets the Minimum Requirements as detailed on the game's packaging. If you are experiencing poor performance, check to make sure your system hardware supports the requirements.

BACKGROUND TASKS

In some cases programs that are running on your system can monopolize resources that the game needs in order to install, load, and run properly. Not all of these programs are immediately visible. There are a number of programs, called "background tasks," that are always running on your system.

IMPORTANT NOTE: While shutting down background tasks will optimize your system for running Command & Conquer 3 Tiberium Wars, these background tasks' features will be unavailable once shut down. Be sure to re-enable background tasks after playing Command & Conquer 3 Tiberium Wars by restarting your computer.

If your system is running anti-virus or crash guard programs you will need to close or disable them to run Command & Conquer 3 Tiberium Wars. To do this, find the icon for the program on the Windows Taskbar and then right-click the icon and select "close," "disable," or the relevant option. Please note that these programs will be reactivated the next time you restart your computer.

Once anti-virus and crash guard programs have been disabled, you should end all unnecessary general background tasks.

To view and close background tasks (Windows XP):

1. Hold down CONTROL and SHIFT and then tap ESC. Select the Windows Task Manager.
2. Click the Processes tab. This tab displays a list of all background tasks running on your system.
3. Click the User Name column heading. This sorts all the processes together by user name.
4. Select an item with a user name, but DO NOT select one from the SYSTEM, LOCAL SERVICE, or NETWORK SERVICE groups. Also, DO NOT select the explorer.exe or taskmgr.exe items.
5. Click END PROCESS. You may receive a warning message, if so click YES. The selected item disappears from the list.
6. Repeat steps 4 and 5 until only explorer.exe and taskmgr.exe remain in the user name group.

VIDEO AND SOUND DRIVERS

An outdated video or sound driver can lead to slow and choppy gameplay, or in some cases can prevent the game from running at all. To ensure an enjoyable experience with Command & Conquer 3 Tiberium Wars, be sure that you have the most recent video and sound drivers installed. These drivers are typically available for download from your system or hardware manufacturer's website. If you are not sure what type of video or sound card you have, or you don't know how to update the drivers on your system, please refer to the documentation that came with your system or peripheral.

INTERNET PERFORMANCE ISSUES

To avoid poor performance during Internet play, be sure that you close any file sharing, streaming audio, or chat programs prior to entering gameplay. These applications can monopolize your connection's bandwidth, causing lag or other undesirable effects.

Command & Conquer 3 Tiberium Wars uses the following UDP ports for Internet play:

UDP Ports 8088-65535

Please consult your router or personal firewall documentation for information on how to allow game related traffic on these ports. If you are attempting to play on a corporate Internet connection, contact your network administrator.
